JOSH BORLAND

Highland High School

2022

Athletic Director
OF THE YEAR

Josh has found himself in many leadership positions these last few years. YVIAA District 5 board member, EWAC League President, YVGL Middle School League President, SCAC League President. His peers must see something when they put Josh in charge. His supervisory, coordination and leadership skills have served him and his peers greatly over the years. Due to his skill set he has mentored many new AD's, both middle school and high school.

Highland Superintendent Mark Anderson speaks highly of Josh: "He is highly respected by his peers, his colleagues, the Highland staff, and community. His leadership and commitment to our student athletes and staff during the recent COVID environment was exemplary. I have witnessed him in action over the years and marvel at his unique ability to lead, listen, and learn to work through complicated issues, support students and staff as well as his fellow athletic directors."

Dave Pearson, Granger Athletic Director offers the following insight of Josh: Josh is a person of great character. He holds himself to a high standard and is a great role model for all AD's he works with. Josh has earned the respect and admiration of his peers, coaches, and administrators alike. He is one of the most responsible, hardworking, intelligent, dedicated, and reliable AD's I have ever worked with."

Hailey Bator, Cle Elum- Roslyn School District Athletic Director sums up Josh's influence nicely: "Josh has taken on all of his leadership roles flawlessly. Josh's ability to keep both his own athletic department and our leagues, organized and successful, is admirable. Throughout the school year, Josh has been able to handle multiple situations with an unbiased but educated approach. While I am new to the profession I know what a good leader looks like and a genuine person when I see them.
